

South West Advancing Practice Networking Event

Wednesday 4th May 2022 09:00– 13:10

08:45	Lobby	Orientation and Networking
09:00	Main Stage	Welcome - Lisa Munro-Davies
09:15	Main Stage	Developing a national supervision framework Deborah Harding
09:45	Break - 5 minutes
09:50	Breakout Room A	What a good supervisory relationship looks like Diane Keeling
	Breakout Room B	The governance required to support trainee and qualified Advanced Practitioners - Valentino Oriolo
10:15	Networking Break - 10 minutes
10:25	Breakout Room A	Supporting a trainee in difficulty - Emmie Baker-Larner
	Breakout Room B	The importance of quality assurance to improve training environments - Andy Gadsby / Jennifer Phillips / Girish Lakhanpal
10:50	Break - 5 minutes
10:55	Networking Room A	Discussion from Breakout Room A - Implementing supervision in practice - Diane Keeling and Jane Moses
	Networking Room B	Discussion from Breakout Room B - The importance of a supportive training environment Valentino Oriolo and Andy Gadsby
	Networking Room C	Advancing Practice in Primary Care- Challenges in a different landscape - Simon Ingram and Steve Blakeway
11:20	Break - 5 minutes
11:25	Breakout Room A	Hot Topic A - How is leadership used in practice - Jo Fairhurst
	Breakout Room B	Hot Topic B - Inspiring Workforce Transformation, demonstrating the value of Advanced Practitioners Lou Buckle / Luke Cunningham / Jennifer Lloyd
	Breakout Room C	Hot Topic C - How do I get started in Research - Joy Conway
11:50	Networking Break - 10 minutes
12:00	Main Stage	The future of advancing practice research Joy Conway
12:30	Main Stage	Multiprofessional Consultant Practice: Towards a development pathway Rob Crouch
13:00	Main Stage	Closing remarks Lisa Munro-Davies
13:10	Event Ends

South West Faculty of Advancing Practice